There's a New Kid in Town

If you haven't had the sheer pleasure of meeting Mary Owen, then you're in for a treat. Mary is: quick-witted, sassy, adorable, a wife, a mother, a new grandma and a fabulous cook (as many of us have had the good fortune to taste her delicious lasagna served at the LOU). If that's not enough, Mary has a special skill; she's a fantastic hair stylist.

Mary always wanted to be a hairdresser since she was a little girl and when her Mom gave her that ever-so-lovely Barbie head for Christmas, Mary was hooked. After beauty school, while raising her two girls, Mary opened a shop in her home. After the girls left home, she launched her hair salon in Spokane called Chrisma and has been in business for over 30 years.

In October of 2016, Mary and her husband, Jim, moved to Bayview and Mary continued to keep her Spokane salon open two days a week. As Mary became more involved in the Bayview community, residents discovered Mary was a hairdresser and many inquired if she would be interested in doing their hair. As more and more people started to request appointments, Mary realized there was a need for a stylist in the Bayview area. Jim transformed one of their bedrooms into a charming salon and Chrisma Bayview was open for business in 2018.

Mary enjoys working from her home and since it's not the typical salon setting, she feels she can experience a more relaxed one-on-one time with her clients. Mary especially enjoys hearing their stories of how and when they decided to move and stay in Bayview. Mary said her clients became her new Bayview friends.

Patti Smith had this to say about Mary, "You can't go wrong with Mary. Her salon is chic and comfortable. She's a great stylist and tons of fun. And, I love my new haircut!"

If you're interested in a hair appointment, you can call Mary at 509-290-3340. The salon is currently open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays and is not just for color, cut and style for women. If you'd like your husband, significant other or male friend to get a quick clip, men are welcome too!

ABC FOOD BANK - It Takes A Village

by Mike Kendel

Well, actually it takes a couple of villages, several civic organizations and a lot of thoughtful local businesses & citizens.

Charlotte Hooper, Director of the ABC Food Bank in Athol is one very special lady. She, with the help of Chief Stocker David Harms, Driver Gary Devine, and a dedicated group of other volunteers are the people that keep this vital organization going. Last month alone, the Food Bank helped nearly 600 people, 200 of whom were senior citizens. That's a lot of help!

According to Charlotte, the most needed donations include food such as canned soups, canned tuna or chicken, canned fruit, peanut butter, as well as personal supplies like shampoo and conditioner, toothpaste and toothbrushes, razors and shave cream.

The Food Bank also receives cash donations, and there are other organizations like Little Town Market and 2nd Harvest that help "stretch" those gifts. She said that organizations like 2nd Harvest are subsidized but there are cash costs involved in administration.

Charlotte said that both cash and food donations are deeply appreciated and both will be well used. In addition to donations of food and supplies, the cash outlays to keep the food bank running last year were roughly $1200 per month.

Other contributors that help keep the ABC Food Bank running include Costco as well as civic organizations in Athol and Bayview that hold fund raisers or food drives. And, of course, many individuals community members make vital contributions to the food bank's survival and success.

Finally, with the holidays coming up, Charlotte wanted to thank the Timberlake Fire Protection District and Scenic Bay Marinas & the Karupiah Family for their previous donations of Turkeys for Thanksgiving. In addition, the food bank hands out holiday boxes with festive fare so any contributions of canned fruit or cranberry sauce, for instance, would be especially welcomed.

So, from Charlotte to our generous community, a big "Thank You!" And from us to you, Charlotte, a very grateful and heartfelt, "Thank YOU and well done!"

For further information about the ABC Food Bank or to arrange a donation, please call or text Charlotte Hooper at (208) 771-3117.
